4.0. POLICY:

California State University, Los Angeles (CSULA) is committed to maintaining appropriate internal controls with regard to authorization of business expenses and reimbursements. Internal controls comprise plans and procedures requiring appropriate levels of fiscal reviews and next-level authorizations in the safeguarding of assets. The objectives of a system of internal fiscal review and approval are to provide reasonable assurance that business expenses are properly reviewed and approved.

Administrators authorizing business expenses and reimbursements shall exercise reasonable care to review supporting documents and be satisfied that the transactions being approved are appropriate and in accordance to policies and procedures of the CSU; ensure expenditure commitments do not exceed available resources; monies are expended for their authorized purposes; and that the nature of expenses complies with program goals and policies of the California State University.

Employees requesting approval for business expenses and reimbursements are expected to provide complete and accurate information, as well as a thorough explanation of transactions

Approved:

7.0. GUIDELINES:

7.1. Employees may not:

7.1.1. Authorize or approve his/her own business expenses.

7.1.2. Authorize or approve business expenses by or for a supervisor. Exception: the campus Chief Financial Officer is the designated approver for the campus President.

7.1.3. Authorize or approve business expenses made by a relative, spouse, or any other individual where conflicts of interest exist. Such situations require appropriate disclosures and approvals at the time of proposal by a next level approver.

- 7.1.4. Authorize or approve business expenses and reimbursements for which they have not been delegated authority.
- 7.1.5. Authorize or approve business expenses that result in any personal benefit from the transaction.
- 7.2. Approval authority may be limited at specific dollar levels. Transactions that exceed the specified dollar threshold would require approval at a higher level.
- 7.3. Under no circumstances should an approver with electronic approval authority allow another person to use the electronic signature on the approver's behalf.
- 7.4. Grants and Contracts:
  - 7.4.1. Delegations of Approval from Faculty PI of Record to Co-PI(s) must be communicated in writing to Contracts and Grants Administration and the applicable Vice President prior to approvals.
  - 7.4.2. Non-Faculty PI may not delegate approval authority for grant/contract disbursement; the non-Faculty PI uses the next level approver.
  - 7.4.3. Fiscal Resources personnel are not authorized approvers.
  - 7.4.4. MPP overload requests are recommended by the Provost/VPAA or applicable Vice President and approved by the President (reimbursed release time is not available to MPP).
